Early on July 10, a 28-year-old BSF jawan was attacked by unidentified villagers on the Jia Gaon border in Dhekiali, East Siang district, Meghalaya on July 1. He had to be airlifted to a Guwahati hospital. The jawan suffered a gunshot wound in his left hand. He told the police and the local administration that he was shot by a villager. After investigations, the police arrested who was an eyewitness. They found that he had fired at the jawan. According to the eyewitness, he had shot the jawan on the basis of a personal dispute between them. On July 11, during interrogation, the jawan was forced to reveal the identity of his assailant — he was none other than the BSF jawan himself. The jawan also revealed that the encounter with the villagers started at around 7 am, when a group of five-six villagers (50-70 years-old) attacked him with sharp weapons, amid a clash between them and other villagers over a field. "We didn't have any option but to fire," the jawan told the police. The jawan also revealed that even though it was his first time in Meghalaya, he is a regular encounter
