This investigation includes a description of a qualitative study carried out in the Nursing Work Experience Centre of the National University of San Juan. As a first step, the sample was composed of 175 registered nurses working in this institution. The instruments used were the Semi-Structured Interview of Flora (SSI-F) and the sociological approach with the instruments: Survey of Current Studies (SCS), the Inventory of Nursing Professional Quality (INQ) and the questionnaire Job Satisfaction and Stress (FSS). The results obtained showed an average satisfaction of the participants with the work in terms of workload, management, autonomy, relations with clients, relationships among nurses, and the professional effort. However, a high level of stress and job dissatisfaction was found. Recommendations, which are based on the data obtained, are presented for the group of participants, their immediate superiors and the institution. Steve Konezne-Moser Steve Konezne-Moser (born 19 April 1989) is a Liechtenstein footballer who plays as a centre-back and is the captain of the Liechtenstein national football team.
